

Date	Theme	Host, Location, Chair/committee	Joint/ALANZ symposium	Fees (as documented)	Keynote/plenary speakers	Pre-conference workshops?
25 November 2023	Applied linguistics: Looking forward and looking backward	Auckland University, Auckland Tan Bee Tin	ALANZ Symposium	$50 (Members) $75 (Non-Members) $15 (Unwaged non-Members) Free (Student member)	Sophie Tauwehe Tamati (delivered by Rosemary Erlam (Auckland University) Louisa Buckingham (Auckland University)	N
25-27 November 2022	Applied Linguistics in the Asia-pacific region	Victoria University, Wellington John Macalister	ALANZ / ALAA / ALTAANZ	Earlybird $525 (Member) $625 (non-member) $425 (student member/unwaged) Standard $625 (Member) $725 (non-member) $525 (student member/unwaged)	Poia Rewi Rachel McKee (Victoria University) Gillian Wigglesworth (Melbourne University) Patsy Duff (British Columbia)	N
27 November 2021	Diverse Approaches in Applied Linguistics: Exploring Perspectives, Building Connections	Online symposium, Massey University Karen Ashton	ALANZ Symposium	$50 (Members) $75 (Non-members) $15 (students)	Tan Bee Tin Will Flavell	N
28 November 2020	Teaching to the Times	Otago University, Dunedin Antonie Alm	ALANZ Symposium	Free for members $100 (non-members) $40 (non-member students)	Minh Nguyen (Otago University)	N
25-27 November 2019	Applied Linguistics and Language Teaching: Making Connections	Curtain University, Perth Professor Rhonda Oliver, Conference Chair of ALAA & ALANZ Conference 2019	ALANZ / ALAA	Earlybird $460 (Member) $550 (Non-Member) $370 Student Regular $550 (Member) $650 (Non-member) $460 (Student)	Rod Ellis (Curtin University) John Macalister (Victoria University of Wellington) Carmel O'Shannessy (Australian National University) Alison Wray (Cardiff University) Shawn Loewen (University of Auckland)	N?

1 December 2018		Wintec, Hamilton Anthea Fester Celine Kearney Jenny Field Wang Yi Wang Jing	(Symposium)	Non- Members: $100 ALANZ members: $80 Students: $40	Gary Barkhuizen (University of Auckland) Invited speaker: Robert McLarty (Waikato Institute of Technology)	N
27 - 29 November 2017	Applied Linguistics in the New Millennium: Multiple Theories, Pathways, and Practices	AUT, Auckland	ALANZ / ALAA / ALTAANZ	Member registration $495	Keynote speakers: 1) Jennifer Hay, What New Zealand English teaches us about “Sound Change” (University of Canterbury) 2) Heidi Byrne, The complexity turn in applied linguistics. Implications for instructed SLA (Georgetown University) 3) Hilary Nesi, Roles and registers: linguistic variation in university writing (Coventry University, England). 4) Karl Maton The enigma machine: How legitimation code theory is helping students crack the codes of achievement in education (University of Sydney) 5) Chris Davison, Enhancing teacher assessment literacy in English language education: Problems and pitfalls (University of New South Wales).	N
19 November 2016		Massey, Palmerston North	(Symposium)		Plenaries: 1) Brian Paltridge, Ethnographic perspectives on English for academic purposes research 2) Plenary: Sharon Harvey, Diversity and the case for a national languages policy for Aotearoa/New Zealand	N
30 November - 2 Dec 2015	Learning in a multilingual world	The University of South Australia, Adelaide	ALANZ / ALAA / ALTAANZ	AUD $325 for Members, AUD $350 for Non-Members or AUD $250 for PHD students.	1) Lourdes Ortega, Contesting language learning success in a multilingual world (Georgetown University) 2) Jonathan Newton, Teachers, tasks and textbooks (Victoria University of Wellington) 3) Constant Leung, Learning-oriented assessment: Theories of learning and pedagogies (King’s College) 4) Tim McNamara, Performativity and the gendered subject: Social structures and local practices (University of Melbourne) 5) Li Wei, Translanguaging learning in a multimodal world (UCL)	N

					6) Amy Tsui, Linguistic mediation of learning processes in content classrooms (Hong Kong University)
29 November 2014		AUT, Auckland	(Symposium)		Plenaries: 1) Cynthia White, ALANZ 21 years on: A retrospective and prospective synthesis (Massey University) 2) Stephen May, New Zealand's changing demography: Implications for language (education) policy (University of Auckland) 3) Jonathan Newton Fostering intercultural literacy in New Zealand through language education (Victoria University of Wellington)	N
27 – 29 November 2013	Knowing, being, doing in Applied Linguistics	Victoria University of Wellington, Wellington	ALANZ / AALA		Keynote Speakers: 1) Tony Liddicoat, Linguistics, the intercultural and language learning (University of South Australia) 2) Rodney Jones Using mediated discourse analysis to analyze social media discourse (City University of Hong Kong) 3) John Read, Policy and practice in language testing: The case of international aviation (University of Auckland) 4) Bonny Norton, Knowing, being, and doing identity research in language education (University of British Columbia)	Y Workshop 1: Bonny Norton, University of British Columbia Demystifying publishing Workshop 2: Frank Boers, Victoria University of Wellington Applications of Cognitive Linguistics to instructed second language acquisition Workshop 3: Rodney Jones, City University of Hong Kong Using mediated discourse analysis to analyze social media discourse

						Workshop 4: Cynthia White, Massey University "There's a lot of emotion in what I said – you haven't got that": Analysing emotion as a neglected dimension in qualitative research
1 December 2012	Current directions in applied linguistics research	University of Waikato	(Symposium)	Early Bird Members & students $20.00 Non-members $30.00 Non-early bird Members & students $30.00 Non-members $40.00	Plenaries: 1) John Macalister, Desire and desirability: the journey of Malaysian pre-service teachers in NZ (Victoria University of Wellington) 2) Gary Barkhuizen, Second language identity stories in study abroad programmes (University of Auckland) 3) Anne Burns, Teaching young learners English: Global practices from teacher perspectives (University of New South Wales).	N
30 November – 2 December 2011	Applied Linguistics as a Meeting Place	University of Canberra	ALANZ / AALA & ALS		Plenaries: 1) Diana Eades, 'Applying linguistics to questions about Aboriginal participation in the legal process' (University of New England) 2) Andy Kirkpatrick 'English as an Asian lingua franca: Implications for English and Asian languages' (Hong Kong Institute of Education/Griffith University) 3) Janet Holmes, Joining a new community of workplace practice: discursive evidence of the importance of attitudes' (Victoria University Wellington) 4) Tim McNamara, 'Language analysis in the determination of origin of asylum seekers: A perspective from language testing' (University of Melbourne)	Y First ALAA- ALANZ Postgraduate Student Workshop.

					5) Merrill Swain, 'Cognitive and affective enhancement among older adults: The role of languaging' (University of Toronto)
1 December 2010		Victoria University of Wellington	(Symposium)	Early Bird Members & students $60.00 Non-members $80.00 Non-early bird Members & students $80.00 Non-members $100.00	Frank Boers (Victoria University of Wellington)	