

Call for Submissions for NZSAL

The Editorial Board requests submissions for the forthcoming 2026 publication of the New Zealand Studies in Applied Linguistics.

This year we encourage publication submissions in the form of

Article Submissions

1. For these (enquiries and submissions)

Contact

Nikhath Shameem (Editor) nikhath.shameem675@gmail.com

Rosario Iguin (Copy Editor/Editorial Assistant) riguin@unitec.ac.nz

2. Reviews of books, book chapters, theories, conference reports and unpublished and published Masters and PhD theses from the Pacific region.

These can be items that you have already, but wish to publish its review. (It cannot have been published elsewhere).

These can be items you wish us to source for you, please indicate title and publisher.

Contact

Kamal Heidari (Reviews Editor) kheidari@gmail.com

3. Contributions to our special editorial section. In this publication we will be specifically looking at language change in a second wave of migration.

For further information

Contact

Nikhath Shameem (Editor) nikhath.shameem675@gmail.com

4. Register of theses, workshops, reports on studies relevant to Aotearoa, and can be in any form which is able to be published on-line.

For further enquiries please contact

Barirah Nazir (Research Editor) barirahn@yahoo.com

For further information and details on submissions please follow link below.

<https://alanz.org.nz/resources/guidelines-for-authors/>